

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA

Case No. S15D0761

Atlanta, February 19, 2015

The Honorable Supreme Court met pursuant to adjournment.
The following order was passed.

AMANDA MCLENDON v. JASON MCLENDON

Upon consideration of the application for discretionary appeal filed in the above-styled case, the application is hereby determined to have possible merit and is, therefore, granted pursuant to this Court's Rule 34 (4) regulating applications to appeal in certain divorce and alimony cases.

The Court is particularly concerned with the following issue(s):

- (1) Did the trial court commit reversible error in its determinations on custody, child support, or any other issue addressed in the parties' Final Judgment and Decree of divorce?
- (2) Did the trial court err in awarding attorney fees under OCGA § 9-15-14 (b), where it actually granted part of the relief sought in Petitioner's motion for new trial/motion for reconsideration?

The appellant's notice of appeal must be filed in the trial court within ten days of the date shown above. Once the record is received from the trial court and docketed in this Court, notices will be mailed to all counsel showing the date of docketing and the case number assigned. The appellant's enumeration of errors and briefs will be due in this Court within 20 days of docketing; the appellee's briefs will be due within 40 days of docketing, or within 20 days of the filing of appellant's briefs, whichever is later. See Rule 12.

All the Justices concur.

SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA
