

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA

Case No. S15D1556

Atlanta July 31, 2015

The Honorable Supreme Court met pursuant to adjournment.
The following order was passed.

KAREN HORTON v. CHRISTOPHER L. HORTON

Upon consideration of the application for discretionary appeal filed in the above-styled case, the application is hereby determined to have possible merit and is, therefore, granted pursuant to this Court's Rule 34 (4) regulating applications to appeal in certain divorce and alimony cases.

The Court is particularly concerned with the following issue(s):

1. Did the trial court err in determining as a matter of law that the Stockbridge, Georgia property titled in Husband's name was his separate property?
2. Did the trial court err in awarding Husband attorney fees under OCGA § 9-15-14?

The appellant's notice of appeal must be filed in the trial court within ten days of the date shown above. Once the record is received from the trial court and docketed in this Court, notices will be mailed to all counsel showing the date of docketing and the case number assigned. The appellant's enumeration of errors and brief will be due in this Court within 20 days of docketing; the appellee's brief will be due within 40 days of docketing, or within 20 days of the filing of appellant's briefs, whichever is later. See Rule 10.

All the Justices concur.
