

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA
Case No. S16D1896

Atlanta, August 26, 2016

The Honorable Supreme Court met pursuant to adjournment.
The following order was passed.

TRACY HARDIN v. JOHN HARDIN

Upon consideration of the application for discretionary appeal filed in the above-styled case, the application is hereby determined to have possible merit and is, therefore, granted pursuant to this Court's Rule 34 (4) regulating applications to appeal in certain divorce and alimony cases.

The Court is particularly concerned with the following issue(s):

(1) Did the trial court err in concluding that disability benefits issued pursuant to an insurance policy are non-marital property?

The appellant's notice of appeal must be filed in the trial court within ten days of the date shown above. Once the record is received from the trial court and docketed in this Court, notices will be mailed to all counsel showing the date of docketing and the case number assigned. The appellant's enumeration of errors and briefs will be due in this Court within 20 days of docketing; the appellee's briefs will be due within 40 days of docketing, or within 20 days of the filing of appellant's briefs, whichever is later. See Rule 12.

All the Justices concur.
